VIRGINIA BOYS EXONERATED

Naval Academy Inquiry Clears Them of Charges of 'Gouging'

VICTORY FOR CARLIN

Result of Proceedings Sustains Alexandria Congressman in his Charges Against School.

One Alexandria boy, Chaplin E. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Evans, and another Virginia boy, T. W. Harrison, Jr., son of Judge Harrison, who were among the seven midshipmen at the Annapolis Naval Academy charged with "gouging", which in plain terms means fraud in examinations, were completely exonerated by the court of inquiry whose findings were made public yesterday.

Not only were the boys cleared but the result was a complete victory for Hon. Charles C. Carlin, of this city, who represented the accused midshipmen in his charges against the methods of conducting examinations at the institution. Since early in June Mr. Carlin has been at work on the case and he spent a number of weeks at Annapolis where the inquiry was held.

The court does not sustain the action taken by the superintendent of the academy in having recommended for dismissal the seven midshipmen who, it was charged, had seen mimeograph copies of examinations sheets in advance. It was the superintendent's recommendation against these seven midshipmen that stirred up all the furor at the Naval Academy and in political circles and led to the appeal to Secretary Daniels which resulted in the appointment of a court of inquiry.

Five of the original seven midshipmen are cleared of the charges of "fraud, deceit, cheating and other culpable irregularities in connection with the last annual examinations." These five are C. E. Evans, S. A. Hamilton, J. E. Moss, D. B. Duncan, and T. W. Harrison, Jr.

The single midshipmen of the original seven who is dismissed from the naval service is R. M. Nelson, Jr., who is found guilty of fraud and attempting to intimidate a witness. One other of the seven recommended for dismissal by the superintendent, Leonard P. Wessell, is punished by being turned back into the succeeding class.

The only other midshipman who is dismissed is Charles M. Reagle, accused of having sworn falsely before the Naval Court. Various reprimands and punishment short of actual dismissal are imposed on other midshipmen.

Secretary Daniels has accepted the findings of the court and its recommendations as to punishment.

The findings of the court show that 118 members, or 63.4 per cent of the first class, and 159 members, or 80 per cent of the second class, had prior to the examination, in some form varying amounts of the so-called "dope," which later proved to be a substantial portion of the annual examination.

The court finds further that sixty six midshipmen whose names are mentioned had surreptitiously and without authority visited one or more of the departments of the academy at unauthorized times for the purpose of obtaining their marks in advance of publication, and that there were undoubtedly many other midshipmen who indulged in that practice.

The courts makes these important re-commendations relating to the future management of the naval academy.

"That the practice of giving out dope or advance information should be abolished unless heads of departments issue it by memoranda, thus insuring that all receive it in equal amounts and in the same form.

"That a uniform system of preparation, printing and safeguarding the examination papers be adopted.

"That examination papers be numbered consecutively, so that should a paper be abstracted, lost or misplaced, it would be known definitely and immediately.

"That each paper show clearly the time, place, date, class and character of the examination.

"That safes be provided for each department where examination papers and all secret matter should be kept.

"That no instructor should take part in instruction of midshipmen or discuss with them the subject matter relating to an approaching examination, who had previously prepared the examination or who had seen the examination or who had in any way taken part in its preparation.

"That examination should not be made so long or so difficult as to make a dope system necessary for a great proportion of a class to pass examinations satisfactorily.

"That to insure the confidence of midshipmen in the absolute fairness to all, no ocffier, professor or instructor should be permited to give an instruction or information in degard to lessons or examinations to any midshipmen outside of section rooms except at regularly authorized instruction periods, open to all members of the class.

"That sections should not be grouped by marks, but should be grouped alphabetically.

"That means should be taken to see that midshipmen taking part in athletics are not favored by unusual advance information."

CARDINALS BEAT PLEBES

Naval Cadets Trimmed by Score of 10 to 0 Saturday

The Cardinal A. C. baseball team journeyed over to the United States Naval Academy Annapolis, Md., Saturday evening and gave the crack Plebes the worst trouncing they have ever received from any baseball team when they lost to the Cardinals 10 to 0. The Plebes fought hard at all times, and played an all around excellent game, but the Cardinals had a wrecking crew with Degnan, Cudmore, McBride, Snowden, Purdy, isdon, Owens, Patterson and Walter Allensworth, who kept the midshipmen busy chasing baseballs and trying to stop the hard-hitting Cardinals from getting more runs.

Walter Allensworth was the choice for pitching honors and he twirled a wonderful game, striking out eleven of his opponents, allowing only two hits, and passing one man during the nine innings which was a most creditable feat. The running catches made by Dick Snowden was one of the features of the game. Jack Risdon on the first base sack handled every chance without a slip and had a fine day in his new position. Tommy Degnan, Cudmore and Purdy, three of the Cardinals new men were in to win for their team and had much to do with the day's success.

Jones, Huse and Clayton were the star players for the Plebes.

The Cardinals were shown every courtesy by the Naval Academy authorities and were treated to an excellent supper in the handsome Bancroft Building dining room after the game. Cadet Evans, an Alexandria boy, looked after the interests of his townspeople and made them feel at home during their brief stay at the Acaremy.

OPPOSITION TO DOHERTY.

Labor Bodies Championing Howard T. Colvin for Position.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette)

Richmond, Aug. 16—The machinists and metal trades federation have begun a campaign to have Howard T. Colvin, of Alexandria, named as state labor commissioner in place of James B. Doherty. The typographical union of this city is also backing a change. Activity in partisan politics on the part of some of the labor department employees is one of the reasons assigned for the opposition to Doherty.

NATIONS AWAIT BALKAIN ACTION

Greek and Serbian Parliaments Meet to Discuss Future Course

VENEZELOS RETURNS

Outcome of Present War Hanging In Balance—Allies Making Strong Representations to States

London, Aug. 16—Momentous decisions which may affect the outcome of the world war and the fate of the Balkan states are hanging in the balance as the Greek and Serbian parliaments meet today.

Venezelos returns to the premiership in Athens today with the prestige of a tremendous popular vote indorsing his advocacy of intervention in the war.

Premier Pachitch today will render the Serbian national assembly at Nish an account of the negotiations with Bulgaria relative to the surrendr of Macedonia and other territorial concession for participation in the conflict.

Envoys of the entente powers are counting upon three elements to bring the Balkan states into quick accord, possibly within the next twenty-four hours These are:

1. The certainty that the present lack of Turkish ammunition makes this a most favorable time for intervention.

2. The fact that the allies have landed re-enforcements and have registered fresh successes at the Dard anelles which might cause the Balkans to lose their opportunity to share the spoils should the allied forces reach Constantinople without them, and

3. The concentration of Austro-Germans against Serbia.

Both Bucharest and Sofia dispatches indicates that this last factor may hasten the Balkan states into united acion.

FREE OIL IN SAVANNAH.

Savannah, Aug .14.—During a storm which swept over the city last week a huge storage tank of the Standard Oil Company was torn from its foundations, resulting in a loss of approximately 4000 gallons of kerosene. Bilbo Canal overflowed, causing a rush of water through the Standard Oil yards. When the leak in the tank was discovered yesterday morning thousands of people flocked to the canal with cans, bottles and buckets dipping up hundreds of gallons of the oil as it floated on the surface of the water. Hundreds of families will burn free oil from "John D.'s" tanks this winter for once in their lives. The rush of water hoisted the tank from its concrete foundation and moved it for a distance of 18 inches.

RESERVISTS IN ROFT.

Italians Attack Crew of German Ships Interned In Boston Harbor.

Boston, Aug. 16— The asembling yesterday of 1,800 Italian reservists, who were to sail on the steamer Canopic last night and their friends was marked by demonstrations against the interned German steamships Amerika and Cincinnati, as a result of which several policemen were severly injured.

Sailors on the German vessels were struck by stones and sticks. Revolver shots were exchanged between the crowd and the police, but it could not be learned that any took effect.

In an earlier disturbance which developed about the formation of a parade of the reservists in North Square three police officers were injured, one being stabbed. Ten arrests were made in both outbreaks.

The body of reservists, said to be the largest to leave this country on one ship since the war began, was made up of Italians from this city and from other parts of New England. They had paraded to the Commonwealth pier in the South Boston district, on one side which lay the Canopic, which was to given them passage to Italy, while on the other side were moored the steamers Amerika and Cincinnati, of the Hamburg-American Line, which have been at this port since the war began.

When two stewards from the Cincinnati in their uniforms were espied on the pier the crowd jostled them. Both resisted and were joined by a watchman on the dock. The three men were beaten badly before they were rescued by police.

The crowd became angered by the rescue and turned to the big German liners. Stones were thrown at both vessels, smashing porthole glasses and deck fittings and also were directed at sailors on the decks, several of whom were struck.

The mob then rushed to the main pier building. The United States Custom Staton was stoned but eight officers forced the crowd back at the point of revolvers. Shots were fired in the air, and were answered from the crowd, but later no bullet wounds could be found. Several policemen, however, required hospital attention, head wounds, a broken leg, wrenched arms and severe contusions being among the injuries.

THE POLISH QUESTION.

Disagreement Said to Exist Between Germany and Austria

The Hague, Aug. 16—Are Germany and Austria at loggerheads over the Polish question?

The Franfurter Zeitung recently stated that the two central nations had disagreed over the subject. Berlin desiring to see a German prince on the Polish throne, while Vienna favored an Austrian archduke. This unusually well-informed journal now speaks out more sharply than ever on the subject, telling the Poles bluntly that their desires must be subservient to those of Germany.

"Austrian Poles already have taken the initiative," comments the Zeitung. "and presumably Austria was aware of the steps they intended to take. The public must remember we have only heard from the Austrian Poles, and it to be feared that they do not speak for all the Poles. Thus the action of the Austrian Poles threatens complications.

"Germany and Austria went to war to protect their own frontiers. The desires of the Poles, therefore ,can not be the only standard by which the future of that country will be decided. Germany and Austria will have the final word. The independence of Poland will not be settled by the action of one side. Moreover, it must be remembered that it was not the Poles who freed themselves they were freed by Germany and Austria, who must put their interests first'"

OPPOSITION TO HOLLAND AND HAY

Two Virginia Congressman Alleged to Have Competitors

EXPECT RE-ELECTION

Four Prominent Men Mentioned as Being in the Race in the Second Congressional District

Richmond, Aug. 16—At least two members of the National House of Representatives from Virginia will have opposition for renomination in the Democratic primaries next August. They are Congressman E. E. Halland, of Suffolk, in the second district and Congressman James Hay, of Madison, in the seventh district.

Already four men are prominently mentioned as contestants for Colonel Holland's seat—J. Peter Holland, J. N. Sebrell, Jr., and W. H. Venable Bland, of Portsmouth. The Citizens' Party of Norfolk may indorse one of this number or put a candidate of its own in the field, as this element of the party is particularly antagonistic to Congressman Holland because of his indorsement of former Senator John A. Lesner for the Norfolk postmastership.

Captain Bland has been indorsed by the labor unions of Portsmouth. J. Peter Holland asserts that he is in the race to stay. Congressman Holland is confident of being sent back for another term.

Post-office fights in the Seventh District have stirred up trouble for Mr. Hay, who has been returned to Congress eight times without opposition Major H. H. Downing, of Front Royal, who was nominated for the State Senate on August 3, in the Page-Warren-Clarke district, is being urged to enter the race against Mr. Hay. Senator Nat B. Early, of Greene County has also been prominently mentioned.

The county organizations and an independant element of the party in Rockingham split with Mr. Hay over the appointment of a postmaster at Harrisonburg. They have no candidate of their own, but are willing to throw their support to Downing or and other equally strong man who may enter the field.

However, Mr. Hay's friends appear to be little worried over the situation. They point out that the position he holds as chairman of the Military Affairs Committee of the House, by reason of long service, and his work for his district will make it impossible to defeat him.

SHOWERS YESTERDAY.

The weather for the most part of yesterday was oppressive, but during the afternoon there were clouds in the west and northwest which brought decided relief before the close of the day. The showers were copious, but the heaviest rains seemed to have gone south and southeast of this city. The clouds were thick in Maryland and considerable lightning was seen in the eastern heavens long after clearing conditions had set in here.

There was rain in Washington yesterday. The steeple of Concordia German Lutheran Church at Twentieth and G streets northwest was partially demolished by lightning.

Grace Reformed Episcopal Church at Havre de Grace, Md. was struck by lightning during the afternoon and set on fire, and considerably damaged.

It was one of the most severe electric storms that has visited that section this summer. The Pennsylvania Railroad station was struck twice, but no damage was done. Several chimneys on private homes also were struck. The rain was heavy and in some sections hail fell.

A CARD

Mr. and Mrs. William J. B. Duncan, take this method of sincerely thanking their many friends for their tender sympathy, both sent and expressed for them in the death of their little daughter Faith Taylor.

FARMER MURDERED

Was Beaten to Death by Robbers Saturday Night

Snow Hil, Md., Aug. 156—Samuel Chatham, 70 years old, a prosperous farmer who has lived the life of a recluse for several years, was found murdered at his home on the county road leading from Snow Hill to Princess Anne early yesterday morning. When found by neighbors the body was lying in the kitchen door, the head and shoulders having fallen across the sill in the house. About 12 feet away in the yard was found his straw hat and it is supposed at this point is where he was first assaulted. Chatham has lived the life of a hermit for a number of years and he was reputed to have amassed considerable money. Three years ago his home was entered and robbed $3,000 in gold. The robber was never captured, although clues led to one of the large Eastern cities and for a time it was supposed an arrest would be made. Other fatalities have befallen the Chatham hermitage. A sister, who was as much of a recluse as the the murdered man, died from some strange cause. Her brother, upon returning home from a neighborhood store found her unconscious, and as she never recovered, a mystery surrounds her death. Circumstances pointed at that time to robbery.

Chatham once before was attacked, but he supposed it was a prank of some neighbor. The murdered man was last seen alive at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and when found had been dead several hours. Surrounding the farmhouse where the murder was committed is a dense copse and it is supposed this undergrowth was the hiding place of the murderer of Chatham, he being attacked from behind with a heavy cudgel. His left and right temples were crushed and right arm was broken. The ground leading to the kitchen door shows evidence of a struggle.

In the house there was much confusion. Every place which might have hidden money or valuable papers was opened. An old chest in which Chatham was reported to have stored his money and from which the gold gold was stolen three years ago was broken open. No one seems to know if there was any money in the house on Saturday nor does there seem to be any clue as to the murderer.

PROMISE FROM ALLIES

Would Secure for Bulgaria a Slice of Macedonia.

Berlin, August 16—Regarding the note of the Entente powers to Bulgaria, the correspondent at Sofia, of the Vossische Zeitung, telegraphs:

"The Entente nations promise, as a consideration for Bulgarian assistance to secure from Serbia the cession of the non-centested zone in Macedonia, with the exception of a small strip of the Serbo- Albanian frontier which is to be retained to permit of a common Greco-Serbian frontier.

"By the non-contested zone is understood to mean that part of Macedonia which under the provisions of the Balkan Alliance should have fallen to Bulgaria after the Balkan war.

"The extent of the cessions from Greece in the hinterland of Kavala is left undermined. The Entente Allies point out that this depends upon the extent of Greek compensation in Asia Minor.

"The Entente Allies in addition proposed verbally that Anglo-French troops should occupy the territory until the end of the war, when it would be handed over to Bulgaria, thereby solving the difficulties of transfering the territory before the result of the war were known."

MANY ARRESTS AT HOPEWELL

Twenty-one Taken Into Custody for Selling Liquor and Gambling

OTHERS ARE SPOTTED

Powder Plant Forces Furnish Much Evidence in Aiding Grand Jury to Return True Bills.

Richmond, Aug. 16—Wholesale arrests on capiases issued by judge Jesse F. West, of the Circuit Court of Prince George County, were made at Hopewell late Saturday night and early yesterday morning. Twenty men and one woman were taken into custody, charged with selling liquor and beer, or operating gambling devices in indictments returned by the special grand jury investigating lawlessness at Hopewell.

When the officers had rounded up all of the accused persons who could be found in the powder plant town, three large automobiles carried the prisoners to Prince George Courthouse, where application was made to Bail Commissioner W. D. Temple for their release on bail. Mr Temple, who is also clerk of the court, was called from his bed and bail of $300 was fixed in each case.

Six additional arrests will be made to-day, and all of those caught in the raid on Saturday night will be arrainged before Judge West at Prince George Courthouse. The grand jury will resume its probe at the same time and more indictments are expected—not only in connection with violations of the liquor and gambling laws, but against proprietors of disorderly houses as well.

There are several leads in connection with the bribery and graft revelations which the grand jury will take up, and sensational developments will follow if the prosecutors are able to secure sufficient evidence to warrant indictments. By threats and cajolery some of those already held and others who are under suspicion have been able to prevent the Commonwealth from unraveling the mystery which appears to have surrounded the handling of several criminal cases by the police force of Hopewell headed by W. D. Henderson, who was summarily removed from office by Judge West two weeks ago. Henderson himself is now under indictment on charges of bribery, selling liquor, and running gambling devices.

Among those taken into custody on Saturday night is A. Blumberg, secretary of the Business Men's Association of Hopewell, who is charged with selling liquor and operating a gambling device.

The evidence on which most of the indictments were based was gathered by Officers E. L. Miraglia and J. M. Dallas, of the Du Pont force, who were detailed on July 5 to "get the goods" on violators of the law in Hopewell. Supervisor Reeves and other high officials of the Du Pont plant have been co-operating with State and county authorities in getting evidence.

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning. Samuel Rainey, a dwarfish individual who said was from Ireland, was arraigned on the charge of trespassing upon the property of the Texas Oil Company at the foot of Wolfe street. A lock on a gate had been broken, and there was reason to believe Rainey had endeavored to force a passage into the warehouse. The suspect denied having tampered with the lock. He had several pieces of sticking plaster on his face. He said he was injured when he was ejected from a freight train. Rainey was given one hour in which to leave the city.

AN INCENDIARY BLAZE

Colored People on South Alfred Street Ran Out of Homes by Early Morning Fire

The fire bug was found to be operating in another section of the city at an early hour yesterday morning. During the past year most of the incendiary conflagrations have been in the southeastern section of Alexandria.

Richard Thompson, colored who occupies a two-story frame house, 308 South Alfred street and Maria Sheppard, colored, who occupies No. 310 adjoining, had exciting experiences about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Thompson ran a lunchroom on the ground floor. He was awakened by smoke and flames just in time to gather up his clothing and escape. From the nature of the flames, it was evident that the back of th ehouse had been saturated with oil, and yesterday morning a two-gallon oil can, which Thompson said he had never seen before, was found in the back yard.

Both the houses were considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished.

DEATH OF W. R. CLAXTON

Funeral services for William Rehn Claxton, M. A. Ph. D. will be held tomorrow morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church, this city. Dr. Claxton died at the Emergency hospital yesterday morning. He had made his home in this city for the past eight years. Dr. Claxton was a lawyer by profession but gave up his practice for literary pursuits. He was for a time editor of a Catholic magazine and afterward was an associate editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia.

DEATH OF A. A. LIPSCOMB.

Former Resident of This City Passes Away in Washington.

Andrew A. Lpscomb, a former resident of Alexandria, died at the residence of his son in Washington yesterday. The deceased was lawyer by profession, and had resided on Prince street, near Royal, about thirty years ago. He later removed to Alexandria county. Most of his practice was in Washington.

The deceased was sixty-three years old. Death was due to a complication of ailments, Mr. Lipscomb having been in failing health for a number of years.

Admitted to the bar before he was twenty-one years old shortly after he was graduated from the University of Georgia, Mr. Lipscomb rose rapidly to fame as a lawyer and orator of exceptional brilliancy. He was at one time assistant U. S. District Attorney in Washington.

Mr. Lipscomb was the author and editor of "The Writings of Jefferson," a work in twenty volumes, and was chairman of the board of governors of the Jefferson Memorial Association of the United States. He was a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, and the Sons of American Revolution. He was also a Mason and belonged to the Signa Chi Fraternity.

Besides his son and a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Reiss, Mr. Lipscomb is survived by a brother and sister, Lisle S. Lipscomb and Mrs. Frank F. Greenawalt.

WILEY WANTS RECOUNT

Competitor in Race For Fairfax Treasurership Not Satisfied With Figures

A re-count of the ballots cast in the Fairfax County primary election of August 3 for county treasurer, which showed on the face of the returns as determined by the board of election commissioners a plurality of 4 votes for Frank W. Huddleson of Herndon over his nearest competitor, Claude E. Wiley, of Fairfax, is asked for in a former complaint of contest filed with County Clerk Richardson on Thursday. Notice of contest was served the same day on Mr. Huddleson by Sheriff Allison. The complaint is signed as required by law by fifteen or more qualified voters and sets up as a matter of form certain alleged irregularities in the returns and in the ballots, which it is believed may affect the count of the votes. It is stated, however, that no charges of fraud are made against any election officer or against any candidate.

Mr. Wiley, in a statement to The Fairfax Observer, said that he filed the complaint to protect his own rights, being desirous of a re-count of the ballots to satisfy himself of the accuracy of the returns and being unable to secure a re-count in any other way than by instituting a contest. "If the re-count shows a fair and square majority for Huddleson," Mr. Wiley explained, "then that ends the matter right there, so far as I am concerned. I have nothing against Mr. Huddleson and no desire to stir up feeling but simply want to be sure that the count is correct."

Mr. Huddleson has ten days in which to make answer to the complaint when the issue will be joined before the circuit court. The law gives the court power of "inquiry, determination and judgement" in an elec contest even to the extent of ordering a new election or appointing a new officer in the event of failure to elect. Though the votes at a primary are at stake in this contest, the primary law provides that the regular election statutes shall govern.

Mr. Wiley's action was foreshadowed by the application to Judge Thornton at Manassas on Saturday last for an order allowing him to inspect the ballots and to make notes and memoranda thereon, Judge Thornton, however, revoked the order on Tuesday, after his attention had been called to his lack of authority to issue it.

WILL RETALIATE

Alexandria County Preparing to Erect Toll Gates

The board of supervisors of Alexandria county have asked the county engineer to investigate and report the cost of establishing toll gates on all roads in Alexandria county running to the line of Fairfax county, the wages that should be paid to toll gate keepers, and the fees to be charged east-bound vehicles. It is proposed to erect the gates in retaliation of the action of the Fairfax authorties who have established toll gates on all of the improved roads.

Leon Veith, twenty-three, was killed and four of his companions were injured, one seriously, when an automobile in which they were riding left the roadway between Paterson, N. J. and Dover, N. J., early Saturday and crashed into a tree.

Why Our Fur Sale Is Two Weeks Later Than Formerly

Because in past seasons many of our patrons have made known to us their desire to participate in the sale, but owing to being away from the city during the entire month of August they could not make selections, hence we decide to hold it later. By so doing we will be able to continue it until all will have the opportunity of sharing in the advantages offered.

REASONS FOR BUYING FURS NOW

We have been successful in securing for this sale furs that are in greatest demand at lower prices than have ever been possible. We can state without fear of contradiction that furs are more reasonably priced than in many seasons. Add to this reasonable pricing the 20 to 33 1-3 per cent reduction we are making during this sale and the reason for buying can easily be seen.

SERBIA AND BULGARIA.

The Balkan States, which have been storm centres during the past third of a century, are still seething. The present terrible war originated in that quarter of the world, as did two previous clashes of arms, both serious but by no means as serious as the present war. The allies and Teutons are using every means to influence the Balkans, and the result of the present war is dependent in a large measure upon the action of Servia and Bulgaria. The Baltimore American says:

"Looked upon by Europe at all times as a hellish brew of hate, the Balkan pot keeps up its independent boiling, and boiling over, despite the maelstrom of war that is beating upon the Balkan state from all sides. The Allies might under the existing condition look for support from the Balkan states. These, however, are indulging in acrimony, bitterness, animonsity and deceit. Bulgaria and Serbia are at the base of all this. In view of the fact that Serbia threw the first brand of the war, in the killing of the Austrian grand duke and his consort, and in view of the immense sacrifices that have been entailed upon the Allies thereby and in view of the enormous outlay in benevolent service that has been made for the pest-afflicted population by the doctors and nurses of the Allies, and in view of the stability of the assurances given with respect to the Adriatic hopes of Serbia, it would appear as though that country would go to great lengths to meet the demands of Bulgaria, exorbitant as these appear.

"With the peace of the world in the balance of this action, the Balkans continue to bicker. For with them taking action in concert is another way the peace long sought for would be brought closer. The Allies, in fact claim that their co-operation would assure the early capitulation of the Turks in the Dardanelles and would bring about an entire change upon the East front and spoil all the plans of the Teutons.

"The bickering Balkans give no assurances either to the Allies or the Teutons, and thus they continue their characteristic practice of implacability as between themselves. Bulgaria is gaining no friends on either side, while Serbia may be displaying ingratitude."

INTERNATIONAL LAWS ROPES OF SAND.

The present fearful conditions in the most civilized section of the world show the utter folly of peace tribunals or international laws. In spite of the labors and optimism of those who for years imagined they had bribled the worse impulses of human nature and who were teaching men to believe that war was but a horrible recollection of the darker ages, the world is now engaged in a clash of arms more terrible than any that has disgraced the globe. Men of different nationalities supposed to be worshipping the same God, are bathing their swords in each other's blood, and the ferocity manifested seems to be gathering strength. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot says:

"The efficancy of human law depends on the existence of agencies adequate to enforcement of its observance. Where voluntary obedience ceases compulsion must be applied, and the strength of every enactment is measured by the power of the constituted authorities to execute its provisions. In the last analysis government is force. Beyond the reach of the arm of the court no statute is more than a dead letter. The mandates of Legislatures and the decrees of Judges are alike without effect save that behind them are ranged police and military power to coerce the refractory. And herein lies the impotence of that illdefined system which is miscalled international law to command respect for its requirements and hence the hopelessness of any plan for the prevention of war which does not provide practical means for compelling submission by each particular nation to the rules of conduct prescribed by the concurrent voices of a majority of the nations. At this moment only a minority of the people of the globe are even at nominal peace towards the rest. The actual combatants are in a great majority. All the neutral nations together could not muster strength enough to give respectability to any demand they might make on the warring elements. This situation must be reversed before it will be practicable to set in motion efforts at pacification that will not do more harm than good."

NEWS OF THE DAY

Bombardment of Belgrade, the Serbian capital, has been resumed by the Austrians with large calibet howitzers.

False teeth, which stuck in his throat, Saturday caused the death of Edward F. Kennedy, a truckman of Hoboken.

Allied aeroplanes have bombarded Constantinople and the arsenals at Tophane and Galata with considerable damage and casualties.

A large ammonia tank in the second subcellar of the Biltmore Hotel New York, exploded with a tremendous report at an early hour yesterday morning, killing one man and overcoming ten others.

A battleship that cannot be sunk has been invented by a Pittsburg man whose identity, as well as the material out of which the unsinkable ship is to be manufactured, is kept a secret.

"With 300 modern submarines the United States could defy the world to successfully land troops on American soil." This statement is made by Lieut. C. R. Morrison, chief aide on the staff of Rear Admiral Grant, commander of the submarine flotilla and considered the foremost expert on undersea craft.

Three bushels of jewels, purses and other small pieces of personal property which belonged to victims of the Eastland disaster, were recovered when the ship, just three after the catastrophe, was restored to even keel, at Chicago Saturday.

The body of Mrs. Cora Brandon, 40 years old, was found in her home one mile south of South Bend, Ind., Saturday. Her throat had been cut and there were deep slashes on her body. The authorities say they have no clue to the murderers.

Hundreds of Irishmen crossed from Clyde ports Saturday to escape registration under the recent act. They were roughly treated by Greenock crowds, who shouted "Cowards." Several persons were arrested in the disturbance.

After violent hand-to-hand fighting near Puisalenne in the region between the Oise and Aisne rivers, French troops on Saturday succeeded in occupying the excavation caused by the explosion of a mine under a German trench. Nineteen French aeroplanes dropped 108 bombs on German depots in the valley of Spada near St. Mihiel.

Three hundred Mexican border bandits it is said have captured Padre Island off the Texts coast, Padre Island is a narrow strip of dangerous land skirting the Texas coast from the mouth of the Rio Grande for 100 miles toward Corpus Christi. It is a barren rocky waste cut off from the mainland by treacherous holes.

The police of Washington made a clean up of Seventh street between M Q streets northwest Saturday night, arresting 50 young colored men in and about barrooms, poolrooms, restaurants and other places along that retail thoroughfare on a charge of unlawful assembly. They were taken to the station house, where from $1 to $10 was demanded as collateral.

John Hildenbrand, aged 58 years, a retired business man of New York, was found murdered in his apartment in upper Fifth avenue last Saturday night. Hildenbrand had been beaten about the head and body, although a bullet in the heart had caused death. The furniture was overturned, showing that he had struggled with his assailants.

Struck by an excursion train to Philadelphia at the Scott street crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad in Baltimore yesterday morning Thomas C. Lynch, 37 years old, a varnisher, was ground beneath the wheels and almost instantly killed. His body was cut into fragments. Lynch attempted to cross the tracks ahead of the train, which was running at high speed.

Vatican organs deny that Pope Benedict's appeal for peace, issued July 28 was received officially by the sovereigns of the belligerent nations. No document bearing the autograph of the Pontiff, they say, was addressed to the rulers personally. The appeal to the heads of the warring states was a general one, like an encyclical, and no direct reply is expected by the Pope from the various governments of the sovereigns.

Admissions are made in official quarters that the United States government is in possession of information that German diplomatic officers and members of the German secret service have committed innumerable acts in violation of the American laws of neutrality since the war have been ignored up to date as a matter of policy. Some officials are of the opinion that the time has arrived when the government must put an end to a propaganda apparently directed by German officials in the United States, that it is feared may stir up great trouble in this country if permited to continue.

The State Department has made public the reply of the United States rejecting views set forth by the Austro-Hungarian government in a recent note contending that exportation of war munitions from America to Austria's enemies was conducted on such a scale as to be "not in consonance with the definition of neutrality." Through friendly in language and tone, the note flatly denies the Austro-Hungarian contentions, and recalls that that country and Germany furnished munitions of war to Great Britain during the Boer war.

"A Hand Book of Virginia," an illustrated volume of many pages something like 200, is being very largely circulated at the Panama-Pacific Exposition and is attracting a great deal of attention. The hand book was issued from the offices of George Wellington Koiner, the commissioner at the head of the Virginia State Department of Agriculture and Immigration. The volume is splendidly illustrated, and contains a vast deal of information.

Although they have not served half of their term of twelve years in the Virginia penitentiary, the four boys convicted in Petersburg November 17, 1911, of highway robbery, will be made to face a more serious charge in Pennsylvania county. The boys gave their ages and names as, James L. Cary, 17; J. L. Brown, 14 Denver Col; James Davis, 18; Charles L. Williams, 18, Galveston, Texas. The boys are alleged to have started on a campaign of highway hobbery after the murder of Gordon Kaufmann of Reading Pa. Cary is from Petersburg, and its is alleged he, fired the fatal shot. Kaufmann was killed while trying to defend his store against an attack made by the robbers. Governor Stuart has been requested by the authorities of Pennsylvania to pardon the boys in order that they may be rearrested and taken back to the Keystone State to stand trial.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 43 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1914, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV. of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six of article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding sixty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates, and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly shall continue longer than ninety days, except that with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place, not for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been:

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read by title on three different calendar days in each house and read at length at least once in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division "d" of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-divisions "d" and "c" of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency, by vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house, taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal; and provided further, that no bill which creates or establishes a new office, or which creates, continues, or revives a debt or charge, or makes, continues, or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues, or revives a tax, shall be passed, except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal. FATALITY ECHOES THE WAR

Russian Kills Himself After Shooting German Woman and Husband

Trenton, Aug. 16—One man is dead and another man and a woman are in a local hospital suffering from bullet wounds as a result of a violent controversy between a Russian and a German yesterday evening involving the European war and a love affair. Adam Longer, a Russian, ended his life by shooting through the head following a vain attempt to kill Julia Pohart and her husband, Ferdinand, Germans. The man and woman are in Mercer Hospital. Pohart has a bullet in an arm and his wife is wounded in a hip.

Longer had been seeking the affections of Mrs. Pohart, to whose sister he was married, according to the story told by the woman to the police. She repelled his attentions, but he persisted, and her husband finally warned him to keep away from the house. Yesterday evening the two men and woman became involved in an argument concerning the war and parted in extreme anger. Later Longer stopped Mrs. Pohart while she was returning from a field where she had been milking a cow. He shot her and then wounded her husband who was attracted from the house by the shot. Pohart then turned the weapon on himself and ended his life.

THE BALKAN SITUATION.

Crisis Expected to Occur, During Next Twenty-four Hours.

London, Aug, 16—The Balkan situation may reach a crisis within 24 hours. King Charles, of Roumania called a special meeting of the cabinet at Bucharest yesterday, to which the leaders of al political parties ,as well as influential members of the chamber were summoned.

The Serbian national assembly will reassemble at Nish today to receive a statement from Premier Pachitch on the Bulgarian negotiations. Simultaneously the Greek parliament will meet at Athens to oust the present premier Venizelos as powerful as ever.

Austria meanwhile is gathering troops on the Danube and German writers are advocating openly an advance to the Aegean Sea.

The Daily News says Roumania may make a sudden move which will solve the Balkan deadlock.

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Convicted of Robbing Residence.

Charles Robinson, a 15 year old boy who robbed the rsidence of J. P. H. Mason, at Accotink, Saturday afternoon, was turned over to the Fairfax authorities today and will be held until officers of the state reformatory school can come for him. He was sentenced by Magistrate F. W. Troth to the school until he attain his majority. Among the articles taken by the boy were a silver watch, a gold scarf pin, a gold ring, a pocket compass and $6 in cash. The boy at first declared that his home was in Alexandria but afterwards said that he lived in Pennsylvania.

LIGHTNING KILLS CHILDREN

Little Boy and Girl Slain by Bolt and Third Badly Hurt

Dover, Del., Aug. 16—Two children a boy, seven years old, and girl, eight years old, of Mr. and Mrs. Collison, a farmer living near Thomas Chapel, 10 miles west of Dover, were struck by lightning yesterday afternoon during a severe electrical storm and instantly killed. The children were playing in a field opposite the Collison farm along the wire fence when struck. A third child, of Thomas Wilson, a neighbor, was also struck, knocked down and stunned, but still survives.

Seattle Woman Wanted Permit To Send Husband By Parcel Post

Washington, Aug. 16—As live babies have been shipped by parcel post, a Colorado woman thinks Uncle Sam's "pony express" should carry a corpse. The Postoffice Department received the other day a letter from a Denver woman in which she said her husband had died at Seattle; that the express companies demanded an 'outrageous charge" for transporting his body to Denver, and that she wanted a permit to ship the body by parcel post. She concluded:

"Please answer promptly. My husband has been dead six days."

A prompt answer was made, refusing a permit.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY PLANT.

Match Heads Placed on Track Leading to Powder Works

Bluefield, W. Va. Aug 16—An attempt was made at an early hour Saturday morning to blow up the big Nemours powder works located at Nemours, Virginia near here, by placing match heads on the track leading into the press room over which heavily loaded cars pass every few minutes.

The heavy dew, however, had evidently so weakened the burried powers poles who freed themselves; they were ly flared into a flame when the wheels of the cars passed over them.

They were loaded with coke powder, but fortunately none of the sparks reached the powder.

The matches were laid on a rail inside the door of the coining house where a large quantity of powder is stored.

An investigation has revealed no trace of the party who placed the matches on the track.
